Today in the Ausseerland

Grimming

The Grimming is an isolated massif between the Enns Valley and the Hinterberg Valley. It is an imposing figure and before the mountains were measured in detail, it was long thought to be the highest mountain in Styria. Many paths lead up the Grimming. They are all challenging in the end, but the summit climb is all the more memorable and scenically impressive.

Lotus-Museum

The Lotus Museum Bad Aussee, unique in Europe, is dedicated entirely to the Lotus brand. The collection includes classic cars such as the Europa and Esprit, newer models such as the Elise and Exige as well as formula cars and 1200 model cars. Highlights include the Jochen Rindt collection, a 1960s slot car track and a club bar with video wall.

Ranftlmühle mill

The "Ranftlmühle" mill combined with a short hike to the legendary Toplitzsee lake (approx. 35 to 40 minutes) is an excursion that is definitely worthwhile! Start in the district of Gößl and explore nature all the way to the tranquil mill, which is named after the painter Johann Matthias Ranftl. His subjects ranged from landscape painting to portraits and historical and religious altarpieces to genre painting, for which he is still best known today.

Schneiderei Haselnus (tailoring)

The Haselnus bespoke tailoring business in Altaussee has stood for high-quality traditional costume fashion since 1932. Now run by the third generation, the family business offers tailor-made traditional costumes for men and women - including the traditional Altaussee Spenzer made from fine, shape-retaining materials. In addition to custom-made items, the range also includes lederhosen, dirndls and traditional costume fashion from well-known manufacturers. The tailoring shop impresses with its traditional craftsmanship.
